SALES NEWS Issue 89

7th December 1993

Dear Dealer

TCP/IP Protocol Suite Release 2

To satisfy demand, Acorn can now offer the above product as a single user licence as well as a multi user site licence. The retail price will be £99 and normal discounts will apply.

When ordering, please use the same product code as the multi user licence but ensure that you quote that this is for single user purposes to avoid confusion.

Both items are in stock and we look forward to receiving your orders.

Standard Monitors

The above product, AKF40, is now in stock and the backlog of orders should be cleared by the end of this week.

A4000 HD 80

We have limited stocks o fA4000 HD80, AGC20, available. Please ensure that you place your orders now to ensure that you receive an allocation before Christmas.

Yours faithfully
